Mat Assassins Runner-up at Tyrant Duals last year in the MS division and Champion in the ES6 division, the Mat Assassins can always be found fighting for Gold. Their teams are always disciplined on the mat, and wrestle hard to the final whistle. They arrive as the #1 seed in both MS and ES6 divisions this year. They are also fresh off a Bison Winter Duals MS title, so expect them to keep that momentum going. Their lineup includes numerous PA State Champs/placers, Super 32 & Tulsa AA.

Team Shutt is looking to defend their 2023 Tyrant Duals title that they won in dominating fashion. They'll aim to bounce back after taking 4th at Bison Winter Duals, which is likely to only make them hungrier for Gold. Their lineup contains State Champs from PA, DE, TX, VA, and OH. More than a few of these guys also have national rankings on the junior high scene. We'll be sure to highlight them over the weekend. Team Shutt is the #2 overall seed in the MS division.

---

Iron Horse also had a strong performance at last year's Tyrant Duals, earning them a 3rd place finish in MS and Runner-up finish in ES6. Look for them to wrestle with a purpose this weekend to try and bring gold back to NJ. They'll be the 4th overall seed in MS and a top 8 seed in ES6.

M2TCNJ is coming off a 3rd place finish at Bison Winter Duals as well as being crowned first ever Junior Beast Duals Champions. They were 4th here last year, so expect them to keep building off their recent accomplishments and make some adjustments as they fight for another Tyrant tournament title. They are the #2 seed in the ES6 division.

---

Rampage always shows up with strong rosters who will fight hard to the end. They can always be found in the mix fighting for a top 4 finish. This weekend is no different. They will be the #3 seed in MS and #4 seed in ES6. Keep an eye on them.

---

U2 Upstate Uprising has had some great success at Tyrant events over the past year and will certainly be a team to watch out for this weekend as well, as they present 2 strong teams with talented wrestlers from mainly PA but a few other states as well. They are a top 6 seed in MS and #3 overall seed in ES6.

---

There are several other teams to keep an eye on, many of which are returning this year to continue to challenge themselves and keep making improvements as they attempt to place higher than last year. They'll be looking to make some statements and top seeds shouldn't look past them.

A few more teams to look out for include:

- Doughboys from Massachusetts
- Roughhouse (PA)
- Kraken (PA)
- Headhunters WC (MD)
