Freakzstyle Wrestling

While they may not have top-tier firepower at every spot, this team consistently puts out gritty, well-coached wrestlers who know how to battle in duals. Anchored by proven PIAA qualifiers and consistent regional placers, they're the kind of team that won't be an easy out for anyone. Expect close matches, solid mat awareness, and a group that wrestles hard from whistle to whistle.

A few wrestlers to look out for on TDWC Maniacs:

- 98 – Jack Stonebreaker – 3rd PJW States, 2x Tulsa National Champion, 5x PA State Finalist, Super 32 Champion

The High School American Division top 2 seeded teams are Wrecking Crew Blue and New England Gold. If they emerge from their 7 team pools with the best record they will square off in the Finals. Most of these American Division teams are scrappy with a lot of raw talent. Very capable of pulling off upsets throughout the weekend. The American Division title is up for grabs. Who will step up and take it?

The Middle School Division will be 4 pools of 6 with. The MS division will feature numerous up & coming talented wrestlers looking to keep advancing their skills. The Mat Assassins are always dangerous and wrestle sharp, making few mistakes.

The ES6 division will be 4 pools of 6 with a Gold Pool. The Outsiders will be seeking their first Tyrant Tournament title under a new name. But a name is just a name. Their wrestling speaks for itself and they have been a tear. They are the favorites to win the ES6 division.

The ES4 division will be same as above 4 pools of 6, with a gold pool. Top seed is Potentially Dangerous.

The Girls Freestyle K-12 Division has 12 teams representing the states of PA, CT, NJ, MD, VA, WI, NY, WV and NC! Plenty of up-and-coming talent to watch amongst these teams of tough women. We'll be sure to highlight some top performances this weekend.
